Unexpected Costs and Emergencies

She was only 18 months old, her racing career – like that of so many greyhounds – shortened by injury. We found that she was sweet, spirited, and alert to everything around her. She flunked cat testing. Oh well, there would be plenty of homes without kitties for such a cute girl. She was Daphne.

Daphne had spay surgery which appeared to be unremarkable. However, a few days later, she developed severe vomiting and diarrhea. She returned to Ina Road Animal Hospital where they discovered that she had a severe abdominal complication, an intussusception, telescoping one section of the intestine into another. Surgery was required, young and healthy with a good chance of recovery, we proceeded. Ten inches of intestine were removed. To help her recovery, Barb Bowers and Chet Gadola, our kennel directors, took her in, feeding Daphne several small bland chicken and rice meals. In her weakened state, she ignored their cat.

But, Daphne wasn't able to keep food down, so back to the hospital she went where an internal leakage was discovered around her surgical site. Another surgery was required; she remained at the hospital for monitoring, wasting away from a petite 50 pounds to an emaciated 37. Still, things seemed to stabilize as she was eating much better, keeping food down with her weight stabilizing. She became quite the staff mascot, especially for the evening shift, where you might find her wandering through the clinic.

Things seemed to be improving as days passed, especially when she stole a bagel and ate it. Everyone was hopeful. Then a call came saying she stopped eating. Another ultrasound showed her intestine again telescoped with numerous adhesions. She could not survive another surgery, so the heart-wrenching decision of euthanasia was made on August 19.

Daphne's vet bills were over $4,000 even though she spent a month at Ina Road without cost. No matter how we might budget, there will always be the unexpected costs and emergencies that arise with our hounds. Like all non-profits, one of the most daunting tasks we face is fundraising. We thank our generous donors for their support.

We continue to explore planned giving, bequests, charitable gifts, and estate planning; employee directed donations like ECAP and United Way; desperately needed grant writing; and sponsorships. Please visit our website <www.azgreyhoundrescue.org> for the specifics.

Daphne – 1/04 to 8/19/05. Daphne now runs in the grassy fields chasing rabbits all day and finding the occasional bagel. Her spirit is free, running like the wind. She is greatly missed. Arizona Greyhound Rescue would like to thank the generous and caring volunteers and donors, both near and far, who contributed over $2,100 to the Daphne Fund and the wonderful caring staff of Ina Road Animal Hospital.

Sparky

At 2 1/2 years, Sparky started out very exuberant hence his name but has since calmed down, is very affectionate, and gets along well with other dogs. At meet-and-greet events, he is the perfect gentleman and loves to get his belly rubbed.

Cookie

Cookie is extremely shy at 2 but through her patient foster family she is learning the ropes. She loves to go for walks and understands basic commands. She is cat and dog friendly and very affectionate. People want a Cookie?

Spud

Spud has been on Channel 12's Pet Connection. At 3 1/2 years, he has a lot of energy but has since calmed down and learned house manners. Pet me! Pet me! And give me a stuffed toy too. Let Spud be your bud.

Stitch

Stitch is a very energetic puppy who turns 1 in November. At 6 months, he was badly beaten by littermates which is how he got his name. Never raced, he is a lover boy and gives kisses freely.

Nolan

Named after Nolan Ryan, our 4 year old boy of summer is the sweetest guy you ever could meet. However, he's extremely shy. Day by day he becomes more trusting of people and will surely blossom in a loving home.

Adoption Scoop

This summer Pima Animal Care Center (PACC) seized 78 greyhounds from a tick-infested kennel on Tucson's south side. We took in six males dubbed, "Boys of Summer", named after baseball legends...Hank, Mickey, Nolan, Ty, Willie, and Yogi. Hank made the first hit and is now safely home with his forever family.

While summers are typically slow, we kept the pace by adopting 27 dogs from June through August. This feat was accomplished with the unflinching help of many who showed dogs at the kennel, transported dogs to meet-and-greets, interacted positively with the public, completed home checks, fostered, and followed through with adoption leads. Thanks for your efforts.

More adoption coordinators are needed for other parts of town. If we all share the responsibility, imagine the possibilities for hounds finding loving homes. From January through August, there have been 64 finalized adoptions. Let's have our best year ever!

If you would like to help with adoptions, please contact Mary Freeman, maryagr@cox.net or 886-7411.

Animal Activist Bride

When Nikia Bourgoine and husband Joe Fico tied the knot on June 18, they asked guests to make donations to galgo rescue in lieu of wedding presents; over $2,000 was donated. An AGR volunteer, Nikia adopted Demas, the greyhound, and is pictured here with Cielo, the galgo (Spanish greyhound).

Saying Goodbye

BJ DeBruine, AGR medical intake coordinator, recently moved away but not before adopting Kylee and Todd (Toby). We miss her and hope that she's not sleepless in Seattle.

GLAD Group

The greyhound community sticks together. Every month the greyhound-L, a listserv on greyhoundlist.org chooses one group and asks its members to send funds. Within that group is another group, VEGA, who held an auction on our behalf. We'd like to thank the many donors among them AVwinery.com for their $100 gift certificate, adopter Hilary Meehan for her $75 Mary Kay gift certificate, and 2houndsdesign.com for organizing the auction.

Age Is Sage

When Mollie Batten turned 106 years young, the Tucson Police Department hosted a birthday party in her honor plus donated $100 to Arizona Greyhound Rescue as her charity of choice. AGR gave Mollie note cards and a certificate. Karyn Zoldan and her greyhound Painter visited Mollie and a mutual admiration was born. A former greyhound owner, Mollie, lovingly let Painter put his needle nose in her lap; both practically purring with contentment.

The Cat's Meow

What's a cat like you doing in a place like this?

I, Chester, was chosen to be the official cat tester because I don't mind these big skinny dogs and I'm very tolerant.

How old are you? Who is your human?

I'm 9 years old and my human is Jean Rettus, an AGR volunteer and PETsMART coordinator.

What qualifications do you have for this job?

I lived with three greyhounds in the past and now share a home with four pedigree mutts — the two pups drive me crazy but they're still young.

You must be very brave. Describe the cat testing process.

Well, I am brave but also very understanding. My human brought me to the kennel where I was fitted with a feline harness. This made it impossible for me to hide. After all, I had a job to do.

Mary Freeman brought the hounds into the room one at a time on leash and muzzled. Some didn't care that I was there; others were overly interested, and some just curious to see a strange but friendly fuzzy.

Why is cat testing so important?

At the track, greyhounds are used to chasing a moving fuzzy and we cats are moving fuzzies. If the hound has a strong prey drive, it could be doomsday for a cat.

Do you have any words for your adoring public?

In my experience, I've always gotten along with dogs. I especially loved my greyhound cohabiters. They were warm and affectionate. I must say that with a greyhound, when it works, it works.

Volunteer Voice

"Wow! This is why I love working with AGR...so many wonderful people willing to help the dogs. I received about six offers for transport on Sunday back to the kennel from the northwest PETsMART. I was overwhelmed with your generosity, especially on a holiday weekend."
Audrey Sharpe

Foster Homes Wanted

Hello, my name is Scott Marchand and I am the new foster director. Fostering is an often overlooked, but a very important part of what we do to make the adoption process easier for both families and dogs. A fostered dog that has been shown the ropes and familiarized with houses and pet routines is much less likely to rebound or have issues adjusting to permanent adoptions so our goal is get as many dogs into foster homes as possible.

It is not trivial to make a decision to foster a dog. It can take a lot of concentration, effort, love, and some money. Of course, time is most essential. There is no typical situation with a foster as they can be in your house for as little as a few days to even months.

The ideal foster family should have some experience with dogs, be very patient, and not be afraid of urine! Recently a lot of incoming dogs are not especially cat or small dog tolerant so we really could use some foster families without cats. If anyone is willing, able, or can refer people to foster that would be helpful. We have about 12 dogs in foster care now; the kennel is still pretty full with the recent influx of dogs from PACC. To foster, contact Scott at agrfostrering@hotmail.com

With deepest gratitude and appreciation, we thank all the current foster families and those who have offered.

Sunday Driving

Can you spare a couple of hours one Sunday a month? AGR has a critical need for dogs to be transported from our Marana kennel to tabling at PETsMART and PETCO in midtown and eastside from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Ideally, you would transport two dogs at least one way. We can buddy you up with another transporter to complete the team. The more exposure kennel hounds get, the better chance they have for adoption. Please contact Audrey Sharpe, transport coordinator.

Smell the Roses

What's New? Everyone loves flowers; they are the perfect gift for every occasion. You can now order flowers through our website by clicking on the AGR store. What's really cool is that AGR receives a 20 percent commission with all purchases.

Donation Boxes

AGR purchased new Lucite donation boxes as a way to accrue passive income. If you own a business or frequent a suitable business where a box can sit safely, please contact Mary Freeman.

Forever Home Notes

"Quinn Jose is quite the character. He walks around the pool, knowing where the edge is. He had fallen in the shallow end and Paul jumped in to fish him out. His major talent is counter surfing. He has quite a sense of humor and makes us laugh. Every morning he lines up with the gang to get his lead on and it seems like he has always been here. (QJ lives with six dogs/none are greyhounds.) We are so glad he came along."
Cheryl Bennett

"Cheddar is a very well mannered animal who does not know he is an animal. Yesterday he played with a hard toy just like a cat." From day 6 of the diary kept by Don Blasck & Bonnie Demorotski.

"So often I have wanted to sit down and write how grateful we are to have Bamboo (Lucky) in our family. For months he struggled with his open wounds which kept us quite preoccupied with medical care. That is behind us. I am ecstatic to report that he is completely healed! Thanks so much from the bottom of our hearts."
Joan Ponton & Beryl Varno

Patty (Gina) is voted best dressed by the Sight Hound Press wearing adoptive mom's (Lorene Scaglione) handmade couture.

My name is Gib and I have been adopted by some outstanding people who make me feel right at home. I have learned to navigate stairs which is a big deal since I never saw them before. At first, I didn't realize that I was supposed to "do my business" outside so I thought that lifting my leg wherever was acceptable behavior. However, through some guidance from my humans, I learned to let them know that I needed to go outside! But it's worth it because they tell me what a beautiful, smart dog I am and give me treats for being a good boy. Written by Susan Glenn

Local Target Marketing Opportunity

The cost of printing and mailing the newsletter is great. Yet, it's one of our best marketing tools that reaches past, present, and future adopters, local media, and Tucson's movers and shakers. In the coming winter issue, we will be offering four one-fourth page ads on a separate insert for $100 each, half page for $200 or whole page for $375. The best part is that each ad will be professionally designed by a Fortune 500 graphic designer (Diana Hansen) and you can keep a copy of the ad on a CD for future use.

Sponsor benefits include being listed and linked from our website and thanked frequently in email blasts to 100+ volunteers. Don't miss out on this targeted marketing opportunity as well as supporting the hounds. Contact Karyn, sales@azgreyhoundrescue.org or call 318-1222 for details.

What's a Greyhound Reunion?

On October 22 seasoned and new adopters, greyhounds, and their admirers come together for an afternoon of socializing, seminars, and silliness at Reid Park (see insert). This is AGR's biggest fund-raiser and fun-raising event. First the silliness, dress your hounds in costume and yourself too. Expert speakers will address the crowd about Valley Fever, animal behavior problems, and past lives. $10 micro-chipping and $5 nail trimming is available as well as an assortment of vendors such as artist Alexandra Jones, custom coats from the Hound Maiden, gloriously beaded collars by the Stitch Queen, more collars and things from Marsha's Martingales, and the Holistic Animal Care Shoppe plus t-shirts, toys, and greyhound calendars.

Come out and see the greyhounds you've read about, fostered, are at the kennel, or saw at meet-and-greet venues. Many people have so generously donated raffle prizes including the Westin La Paloma Resort, Metro Restaurants, handmade quilt by Diana Hansen, Lazy Grey Ranch, OK Feed & Supply, DogsChef.com, Pet Designs, and more. For a complete list of raffle prizes, visit www.azgreyhoundrescue.org

The reunion will end on a high note with a group rool!

AGR HAPPENINGS and CALENDAR

As the AGR Turns...

It's been a long, hot, busy summer: In June, July, and August, we held three dog washes at Pantano Animal Clinic, the Fit Center, and Veterinary Specialty Center respectively. Wild Horses Massage Clinic and BRIO Salon donated generous raffle prizes. Many new volunteers joined us washing hundreds of dogs for good clean fun while Cynthia David trimmed thousands of nails.

Scott Marchand grabbed the brass ring as foster director and Sandi Cromwell, PETCO coordinator. We've added PETCO Tucson Mall to our meet-and-greet venues and are now there every Sunday.

Kim Matas, reporter for the Arizona Daily Star, wrote an article about volunteer Maggie Wallis and Blueberry Hound, Arizona's first certified greyhound service dog.

The Jewish Community Center invited us to participate in their pre-school pet safety class. Donna and Jim Haywood and their hounds Zoey and Collin, Elizabeth O'Leary and Frieda, and Karyn Zoldan and Painter participated.

The kindness of strangers brought Glenda Taylor who took the reins signing us up to ECAP (employee giving for the county).

Thank you all for your dedication and participation.
